Ode

BY ARTHUR OSHAUGHNESSY, 1844-1893

We are the music makers,
And we are the dreamers of dreams,
Wandering by lone sea-breakers,
And sitting by desolate streams; -
World-losers and world-forsakers,
On whom the pale moon gleams:
Yet we are the movers and shakers
Of the world for ever, it seems.

Edwards's poems traverse the spectrum of human experience, from the ecstatic heights of love to the depths of despair. In "Symphony of Sorrow," he gives voice to the anguish of loss, painting a vivid portrait of grief's relentless grip:
