On the Membership page, scroll down to the "Your Membership" section. Here, you will see a button labeled "Cancel Membership". Click on this button to begin the cancellation process.

You will be presented with a confirmation dialog box asking you to confirm your decision to cancel your membership. Read the message carefully, then click on the "Yes, Cancel" button.

After confirming your cancellation, you will be given the option to provide feedback on why you are canceling your membership. This is optional, but your feedback can help Unlimited improve its services.

Once you have provided feedback (or skipped this step), click on the "Complete Cancellation" button. Your membership will now be canceled.

If you encounter any issues while canceling your membership, here are some troubleshooting tips:

- Make sure you are logged into the correct account. If you have multiple Unlimited accounts, make sure you are logged into the account associated with the membership you want to cancel.
- Clear your browser's cache and cookies. This can help resolve any temporary glitches that may be preventing you from canceling your membership.
- Contact Unlimited customer support. If you are still having trouble canceling your membership, contact Unlimited customer support for assistance.

Canceling your Unlimited membership is a simple process if you follow the steps outlined in this guide. By following these instructions and using the provided screenshots, you can quickly and effectively cancel your membership without any hassle.
