- Target audience: The original Teen Titans series was aimed at a slightly older audience than Teen Titans Go!. This is reflected in the darker and more serious tone of the original series, as well as its more complex storylines.
- Humor: Teen Titans Go! is a much more comedic series than the original Teen Titans. This is evident in the show's zany animation, over-the-top characters, and frequent use of slapstick humor.
- Structure: The original Teen Titans series followed a more traditional episodic format, with each episode telling a complete story. Teen Titans Go!, on the other hand, often features stories that are spread out over multiple episodes. This allows the show to explore more complex and serialized storylines.

Despite their differences, both Teen Titans and Teen Titans Go! are popular and well-received animated series. The original Teen Titans series is praised for its dark and serious storytelling, while Teen Titans

Go! is praised for its humor and lightheartedness. Ultimately, the best Teen Titans series for you will depend on your personal preferences.
